

A trick with Koszul complexes and a derived equivalence

Sarang Sane (Indian Institute of Technology Madras)

We will describe a procedure using Koszul complexes to reduce the length of certain complexes of modules. Using this, we will describe an equivalence of certain derived categories of modules. In particular, we will use this description to give a characterization of Cohen Macaulay local rings in terms of derived categories and state some applications to K-theory.