

Derived Algebraic Cobordism

Timo Schürg

Levine and Morel introduced Algebraic Cobordism, a cohomology theory for smooth algebraic varieties whose structural properties resemble those of complex cobordism. In this talk I would like to present an alternative set of generators and relations for this cohomology theory using derived algebraic geometry.