

I will discuss the the role of the limiting absorption principle (LAP) in the context of one-body generalized Schrödinger operators (such as: fractional Laplacian, discrete Schrödinger operator, magnetic Schrödinger operator or Dirac operator). The potentials are assumed to be short range, but may be quite rough.